People of the State of California, Plaintiff, Case # In Custody
vs. ,Defendant ORDER GRANTING DEFERRED ENTRY OF JUDGMENT (PC 1000 et seq.)

The defendant represents that he or she has been fully advised of and understands all his or her constitutional and statutory rights, including the right to speedy trial, a speedy preliminary hearing, if charged with a felony, and right to a trial by jury. The defendant consents to and requests consideration for deferred entry of judgment.

The district attorney has reviewed his or her file, declares that the above-named defendant meets the criteria specified in Penal Code §1000(a)(1)-(4), and finds that the defendant is eligible for consideration for deferred entry of judgment.

Dated: _____ Deputy District Attorney

The county drug program administrator pursuant to Penal Code §1000.1(c), has certified that the licensed program checked below is credible and effective. Out of county programs are allowed if certified.

THE COURT FINDS that the defendant has been advised of, fully understands and voluntarily waives all of his or her constitutional and statutory rights including the right to a speedy trial, a speedy preliminary hearing, if charged with a felony, and right to a trial by jury. The court further finds that the defendant is a person who consents to and would benefit from a grant of deferred entry of judgment.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED THAT entry of judgment be deferred for no less than 12 months nor longer than 18 months on condition that the defendant obey all of the following terms and conditions:

- 1. Contact the treatment program checked below within 7 days and complete enrollment within 30 days.
 Zona Seca, 26 W. Figueroa St., Santa Barbara, CA 93101, Phone (805) 963-8961

2. Keep the Treatment Program advised of any change in residence address, employment, and any new arrests.
3. Actively participate in, pay for, and successfully complete this treatment program as directed.
4. Obey all laws.
5. Pay a diversion restitution fee to the Clerk of the Court in the amount of $100 by _____ (1001.90 PC).
6. Do not use or possess any drugs or narcotics controlled by law, unless prescribed for treatment by a licensed physician, and then only in the amounts prescribed.
7. Submit to drug testing as directed by the Court, Probation Officer, Drug Counselor, or any Law Enforcement Agency.
8. Other: _____
9. The Clerk shall schedule an ex parte hearing to track Proof of Enrollment and Proof of Payment.

The Court, on its own or on motion of the prosecution or probation, may terminate this deferred entry of judgment upon a finding that the defendant has violated any term of this order, is not performing satisfactorily in the program, is not benefiting from the education, treatment, or rehabilitation provided by the program, or has engaged in any criminal conduct rendering him or her unsuitable for deferred entry of judgment. In such event, the court will render the finding of guilt and schedule a sentencing hearing.
