Let's make sure you understand the basics...

Physical Custody

Means you have responsibility for the child on the day-to-day level

Legal Custody

Means you have responsibility for making decisions regarding the child's welfare

Options: Pick One:

---

- Joint legal and physical custody, OR
- Joint legal custody and sole physical custody, OR
- Sole physical and legal custody

It's not about YOU...

THINK OF YOUR CHILDREN'S BEST INTERESTS

- Who can provide for the basics?
- What's unique about your situation: Age, health, personality, experiences and abilities of the kids?
- What kind of emotional ties exist between parent and child?

YOUR KIDS ARE NOT IN A SACK OF POTATOES!

- How cooperative are the parents?
- Is there any history of domestic abuse by a parent?

Goal: Stability and continuity for the child

CO-PARENTING COMMUNICATION

Website Resources

Separated or divorced parents may find that using an online co-parenting system to communicate issues such as scheduling changes, providing the other parent with academic, behavioral or medical information regarding their child, tracking events and activities, creating a photo gallery, and tracking co-parenting expenses is a helpful way to communicate regarding their children. Parents may also find it very useful to use an online shared calendar. This is particularly helpful for parents who have difficulty communicating in-person, by phone or text, or using their personal e-mail addresses. It minimizes stressful discussions and may help to improve their communication which will benefit their children. The following is a list of some websites that provide this kind of management system.

- OurFamilyWizard.com
- BothParents.com
- TalkingParents.com
- ShareKids.com

Santa Barbara County Superior Court does not endorse one online co-parenting communication program over the other. This list is not comprehensive, but is strictly for the purpose of informing parents about this resource, which may be helpful in improving overall communication regarding their children. Some of the websites are free, and some charge for their service. You may want to explore these websites to see which one is the best fit for you.

JOINT LEGAL CUSTODY ATTACHMENT

- TO  Petition  Response  Request for Order  Responsive Declaration to Request for Order
 Stipulation and Order for Custody and/or Visitation of Children  Findings and Order After Hearing or Judgment
 Custody Order—Juvenile—Final Judgment  Other (specify):

NOTICE In exercising joint legal custody, the parties may act alone, as long as the action does not conflict with any orders about the physical custody of the children. Use this form only if you want to ask the court to make orders specifying when the consent of both parties is required to exercise legal control of the children and the consequences for failing to obtain mutual consent.

- The parties (specify):  Petitioner  Respondent  Other Parent/Party will have joint legal custody of the children.
- In exercising joint legal custody, the parties will share in the responsibility and discuss in good faith matters concerning the health, education, and welfare of the children. The parties must discuss and consent in making decisions on the following matters:
  - Enrollment in or leaving a particular private or public school or daycare center
  - Beginning or ending of psychiatric, psychological, or other mental health counseling or therapy
  - Participation in extracurricular activities
  - Selection of a doctor, dentist, or other health professional (except in emergency situations)
  - Participation in particular religious activities or institutions
  - Out-of-country or out-of-state travel
  - Other (specify):
- If a party does not obtain the consent of the other party to those items in 2, which are granted as court orders:
  - He or she may be subject to civil or criminal penalties.
  - The court may change the legal and physical custody of the minor children.
  - Other consequences (specify):
- Special decision making designation and access to children's records
  - The  petitioner  respondent  other parent/party will be responsible for making decisions regarding the following issues (specify):
    - Both the custodial and noncustodial parent have the right to access records and information about their minor children (including medical, dental, and school records) and consult with professionals who are providing services to the children.
- Health-care notification.
  - Each party must notify the other of the name and address of each health practitioner who examines or treats the children; such notification must be made within (specify number): _____ days of the first treatment or examination.
  - Each party is authorized to take any and all actions necessary to protect the health and welfare of the children, including but not limited to consent to emergency surgical procedures or treatment. The party authorizing such emergency treatment must notify the other party as soon as possible of the emergency situation and of all procedures or treatment administered to the children.
  - The parties are required to administer any prescribed medications for the children.
- School notification. Each party will be designated as a person the children's school will contact in the event of an emergency.
- Name. The parties will not change the last name of the children or have a different name used on the children's medical, school, or other records without the written consent of the other party.
- Other (specify):

Remember:

Joint Legal Custody can be ordered by the court in 2 different ways:

- The words “joint legal custody” alone—which means EITHER PARENT can make decisions alone

OR

- “Joint legal custody” with other language to describe HOW the joint responsibility is shared. When do you want the 2 of you to be required to act together?

FW-001 Request to Waive Court Fees

If you are getting public benefits, are a low-income person, or do not have enough income to pay for your household's basic needs and your court fees, you may use this form to ask the court to waive your court fees. The court may order you to answer questions about your finances. If the court waives the fees, you may still have to pay later if:

- You cannot give the court proof of your eligibility,
- Your financial situation improves during this case, or
- You settle your civil case for $10,000 or more. The trial court that waives your fees will have a lien on any such settlement in the amount of the waived fees and costs. The court may also charge you any collection costs.

1 Your Information (person asking the court to waive the fees):

Name: _____
 Street or mailing address: _____
 City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____
 Phone: _____

INFORMATION SHEET FOR PROOF OF PERSONAL SERVICE

Use these instructions to complete the Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330).

A person at least 18 years of age or older must serve the documents. There are two ways to serve documents: (1) personal delivery and (2) by mail. See the Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335) if the documents are being served by mail. The person who serves the documents must complete a proof of service form for the documents being served. You cannot serve documents if you are a party to the action.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PERSON WHO SERVES THE DOCUMENTS (TYPE OR PRINT IN BLACK INK)

You must complete a proof of service for each package of documents you serve. For example, if you serve the respondent and the other parent, you must complete two proofs of service; one for the respondent and one for the other parent.

Complete the top section of the proof of service forms as follows:

First box, left side: In this box print the name, address, and phone number of the person for whom you are serving the documents.

Second box, left side: Print the name of the county in which the legal action is filed and the court's address in this box. Use the same address for the court that is on the documents you are serving.

Third box, left side: Print the names of the petitioner/plaintiff, respondent/defendant, and other parent in this box. Use the same names listed on the documents you are serving.

First box, top of form, right side: Leave this box blank for the court's use.

Second box, right side: Print the case number in this box. This number is also stated on the documents you are serving.

Third box, right side: Print the hearing date, time, and department. Use the same information that is on the documents you are serving.

1. You are stating that you are over the age of 18 and that you are neither a party of this action nor a protected person listed in any of the orders.
2. Print the name of the party to whom you handed the documents.
3. List the name of each document that you delivered to the party.
4.
  - a. Write in the date that you delivered the documents to the party.
  - b. Write in the time of day that you delivered the documents to the party.
  - c. Print the address where you delivered the documents.
5. Check the box that applies to you. If you are a private person serving the documents for a party, check box "a."
6. Print your name, address, and telephone number. If applicable, include the county in which you are registered as a process server and your registration number.
7. You must check this box if you are not a California sheriff or marshal. You are stating under penalty of perjury that the information you have provided is true and correct.
8. Do not check this box unless you are a California sheriff or marshal.

Print your name, fill in the date, and sign the form.

If you need additional assistance with this form, contact the family law facilitator in your county.
