2025 FELONY BAIL SCHEDULE

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA
COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA

Felony and Specified Misdemeanor Arrests

*Approved by the Judges of the Superior Court of the State of California,
County of Santa Barbara
Effective June 20, 2025*

SANTA BARBARA COUNTY

2025 Felony Bail Schedule

After an arrestee's first appearance in court, the amount of bail will lie within the sound discretion of the judicial officer before whom the arrestee appeared and may be greater or less than the amount set forth in this schedule, subject to the provision of PC § 1275 and controlling case law, including In re Humphrey (2021) 11 Cal.5th 135. This schedule may be used by a judicial officer in fixing bail pursuant to PC § 815a at the time of an arrest warrant is issued, the amount of which lies in the sound discretion of the judicial officer.

In determining release or setting of bail, the judicial officer will review the following factors when setting any amount of bail (PC § 1275(a); California Constitution Article 1, §§ 12, 28(b)(3)):

- Safety of the victim;
- Safety of the victim's family;
- Seriousness of the offense(s) charged;
- Arrestee's criminal record;
- Protection of the public (primary consideration);
- Likelihood of arrestee returning to court.

The Santa Barbara Superior Court has adopted the attached uniform countywide schedule of bail pursuant to Penal Code Section 1269b. It sets the presumptive bail amount, which is applicable to warrantless arrestees until the matter is reviewed by a judicial officer.

PRE-ARRAIGNMENT RELEASE

Applying the factors set forth in PC § 1275, and Article 1, sections 12 and 29, the judicial officer will consider known facts about the offense and the arrestee as well as a risk assessment report in deciding to 1) release the arrestee on their own recognizance; 2) release the arrestee upon $0 money bail and non-financial conditions of release that are the least restrictive conditions reasonably related to the crime that are necessary to assure their appearance at court and the safety of the public and victim; 3) set a money bail amount with or without financial conditions of release that are the least restrictive conditions reasonably related to the crime that are necessary to assure their appearance at court and the safety of the public and victim; or 4) defer until arraignment consideration of the arrestee's release, if the judicial officer finds by clear and convincing evidence based on the available information that public or victim safety, or the arrestee's appearance in court, cannot be reasonably assured if they are released with nonfinancial conditions or the arrestee is otherwise statutorily ineligible for release prior to arraignment.

Bail Increase or PC 1275.1 Hold Procedure -

Prevailing legislation places the burden on law enforcement agencies to notify the judicial officer if the schedule bail is not adequate for the crime. Penal Code section 1269c provides that if an arrestee is arrested without a warrant for a felony offense for which bail is enumerated in the bail schedule or for a misdemeanor violation of a domestic violence restraining order, and a peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the amount of bail set forth in the schedule is insufficient to ensure the arrestee's appearance or to ensure the protection of a victim, or family member of a victim, of domestic violence, the police officer shall prepare a declaration and file with the judicial officer requesting higher bail.

The peace officer shall follow the instructions provided to SBSO Correctional Facility personnel:

- 1) Prepare "Declaration In Support Of Motion To Increase Bail Above Schedule" or "Examination of Source of Bail," setting forth the facts and circumstances in support of his/her belief that bail per schedule is insufficient or the source of the bail needs to be examined;
- 2) Submit the form for consideration to the on call judicial officer by contacting the court's on-call answering service provided in the instructions. The judicial officer will review the request and if granted will sign the order and send it back to the requesting peace officer. The peace officer will provide the signed order to SBSO Custody Records to effect increase in bail. The SBSO Custody Deputy will then forward a copy to the Pretrial Services Unit.

Note: Eight hours is permitted for review by a judicial officer after the application for bail increase is made, after which time the arrestee is entitled to be released on posting the amount set forth in the bail schedule.

VIOLATIONS OF PROBATION/PAROLE/POST RELEASE COMMUNITY SUPERVISION (PRCS)

1. Arrest without a warrant shall have NO BAIL if offense is for violating the terms of felony probation, mandatory supervision, post release community supervision and/or parole.
2. Bail will be set at $15,000.00 if offense is for violating the terms of misdemeanor probation.
